Media Information

Welcome to the 2004-05 National Basketball Association season. As the Phoenix Suns begin their 37th NBA season, you can be sure to expect many exciting moments. This season also marks the 13th season of Suns basketball in America West Arena, one of the most accessible arenas in the league. In an effort to continue to provide a professional working environment, please note the following guidelines.

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All season and single-game credential holders should enter through the northeast entrance off 3rd Street and Jefferson. Media will call opens two and one-half hours prior to the game. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from the America West Arena and confiscation of the pass. A photo identification will be required to pick up your credential.

Individual game credentials should be requested through the Suns' Basketball Communications department (phone: (602) 379-7960; fax: (602) 379-7908) a minimum of 36 hours prior to game time or by noon Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday contests. Passes will not be issued on game day. Only requests confirmed via phone by the Basketball Communications department will be honored.

Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, media room and both locker rooms. Both the Suns and visiting locker rooms will be open 90 minutes before tip-off until 45 minutes before the game and then again 10 minutes after the game. The Suns head coach is available pre-game approximately one hour prior to tip-off in his office and post-game 10 minutes after the game in the Pacific room. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere. Absolutely NO autographs allowed during media access periods and NO cell phones are allowed in the locker room.

Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other passes. Weekly papers and magazines on assignment may obtain passes by having the photo editor request a single game credential. It is club and NBA policy NOT to allow freelance photographers access. ALL photographers must have an armband in order to gain floor access. The armbands can be obtained at the media will call check in.

Telephones for the working media should be ordered through Vicki Berryman at the America West Arena (602) 379-2099.

It is our sincere hope that this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the National Basketball Association at the America West Arena. Please call the Basketball Communications department if you need additional assistance.

America West Arena

From its planning inception in 1988 and eventual opening in June of 1992, America West Arena was the benchmark for other cities and other sports facilities. Its design boasted innovations that had not been seen in arenas of its day including multi-story suite levels, attached premium parking facility, and integrated team practice facility. Both public and private critics saw America West Arena as a catalytic project capable of stimulating urban growth and fully embracing the interest benefits of downtown infrastructure, culture and visibility.

In its first full year of operation, the arena received every award a new venue of its kind was afforded including Best New Concert Venue by Performance Magazine and Best NBA Facility by acclaim of those who know best, the players themselves.

Through the course of the 90's, new facilities around the country followed the example of America West Arena and new projects sprung up in nearly all the major western state metropolitan areas: Denver, Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake City and in 1999, Los Angeles and Dallas with the dramatic new STAPLES Center and American Airlines Center. Technology changed, entertainment options proliferated and the City's emerging new downtown continued to evolve in positive ways. To meet the expectations of fans, Jerry Colangelo, and the City of Phoenix, America West Arena is in the process of expanding and improving the fan experience at every level of the arena. The technology improvements include a 360 degree LED system in the seating bowl, a state-of-the-art scoreboard with four 9' x 16' screens and a new sound system. This project will be complete at the start of the 2004-05 Suns season.

Jerry Colangelo

Phoenix Suns Chairman and CEO

Throughout his storied career as a sports executive, Jerry Colangelo has succeeded with a unique combination of know-how both on the basketball court and on the business side of the operation. That savvy and experience is what makes him one of the top executives in professional sports.

Colangelo, who has been the face of the Suns franchise since their inaugural season in 1968, recently unveiled a plan for the Suns future that included the sale of the team for an NBA record $401 million. Banking and real estate executive Robert Sarver, an Arizona native, will be the major investor and managing partner of the new ownership group that will purchase the Suns over the next three years. Colangelo will remain as CEO and Chairman until the sale of the team is complete in June 2007, and then will retain the title of chairman for at least another five years beyond that.

Colangelo's impact on the sports scene in Phoenix and the game of basketball has been so great he was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in April 2004 and enshrined on September 10, 2004 in Springfield, Mass., the birthplace of basketball. Locally, The Arizona Republic named him the Most Influential Sports Figure in the state of Arizona for the 20th century and the Phoenix Business Journal voted him the top businessperson in the Valley for the last five years. Nationally, Colangelo has been among The Sporting News most powerful people in sports for over the last decade.

Since first moving to the Valley of the Sun in 1968 to take over the expansion Phoenix NBA franchise as the youngest general manager in professional sports, Colangelo has molded the Phoenix Suns into one of the most successful organizations – on and off the court – in the NBA. In addition, he brought Major League Baseball to the Valley in 1998 and was Chairman of the 2001 World Champion Arizona Diamondbacks. Colangelo also was the key element in facilitating the move of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets to the Valley of the Sun to become the Phoenix Coyotes.

Currently the Chairman of the NBA's Board of Governors, Colangelo has had influence on the growth of the NBA as a member of the league's Finance Committee, Long Range Planning Committee, Expansion Committee and Competition and Rules Committee. Commissioner David Stern turned to Colangelo to chair a special group in the 2000-01 season that evaluated the state of the game and made rules modifications. Colangelo was also the chair of the committee that welcomed Toronto and Vancouver to the NBA and chair of the relocation committee charged with the Charlotte Hornets move to New Orleans. In 2003, he helped bring an NBA franchise back to the city of Charlotte, which was awarded the NBA's 30th franchise, the expansion Bobcats, and will begin play in the 2004-05 season.

"Jerry Colangelo has been involved in every aspect of our business and is universally accepted as the principal basketball expert among our Board of Governors," Stern said.

With the Suns, his roles have included general manager, head coach, president and now chairman and chief executive officer. The 36-year tenure with one franchise is the second longest in the NBA, behind only Boston's Red Auerbach, who has been an NBA fixture since the league's inception in 1946. Colangelo spent two seasons with the Chicago Bulls working as marketing director, scout and assistant to the president before moving to the Valley to help start the expansion Suns.

Phoenix owns the NBA's seventh-best all-time winning percentage with a 1582-1338 (.542) mark, trailing only the Lakers (.620, 2727-1674), Boston (.597, 2692-1819), San Antonio (.580, 1313-951), Portland (.547, 1508-1248), Utah (.544, 1321-1107) and Milwaukee (.543, 1586-1334). Colangelo has collected an unprecedented four NBA Executive of the Year awards (1993, '89, '81, '76). During that period the Suns enjoyed seven consecutive 50-plus win seasons from 1988 to 1995, including a franchise-best 62 wins in 1992-93 and a trip to the 1993 NBA Finals.

On two occasions Colangelo stepped in to coach the Suns, including the 1969-70 season when he guided the club to a 24-20 mark down the stretch and to its first playoff appearance. He also took over in 1972-73 and compiled a 35-40 mark. Overall, Colangelo is 59-60 as an NBA coach.

The state of the franchise was in question in 1987 but Colangelo stepped up and coordinated a group of investors that purchased the club for $44.5 million on October 14, 1987. That transaction was the first of many that helped Colangelo not only stabilize the basketball organization but also transform downtown Phoenix into an active and thriving district.

Colangelo quickly moved on a new arena for the Suns and in April 1989 the city of Phoenix approved the concept of a new, state-of-the-art arena in downtown that would house the team. The 18,422-seat America West Arena opened in June 1992 and became the first venue in the NBA to also house a full-size practice facility, an amenity now common in the league. The arena is a public-private partnership with the city of Phoenix and has played host to a wide variety of concerts, family shows and sporting events, including the 1995 NBA All-Star Game and the 2000 WNBA All-Star Game.

America West Arena is currently undergoing a $70 million renovation that will be completed in three phases that include the addition of an entertainment paseo and a new grand entrance to the facility.

Colangelo added to his NBA involvement with a position on the founding committee for the WNBA, helping advance professional women's basketball in the United States. The Phoenix Mercury were one of the WNBA's inaugural teams in 1997. The Mercury set a league attendance record in their first season, advanced to the 1998 WNBA Finals and qualified for the playoffs three times.

When a group targeted Major League Baseball as a possibility for the Valley, Colangelo was asked to become the lead player in securing a team for Phoenix. That bid was successful in 1995 and shortly thereafter Bank One Ballpark broke ground in downtown Phoenix in a public-private partnership with Maricopa County.

As with the NBA, Colangelo was involved with the governance of baseball, serving on the Legislative Committee, Equal Opportunity Committee and on the board of directors of the MLB Advanced Media, the technology arm of the league.

The Arizona Diamondbacks began play in 1998 and captured the 2001 World Series in a historic seven-game series against the three-time defending champion New York Yankees. Going from expansion team to World Champion in just four years was a record for Major League Baseball. Arizona won the National League West in just its second season to become the fastest expansion team in baseball history to qualify for the postseason, just as the Suns did in their second season in 1969-70. With the signing of players like Randy Johnson, Luis Gonzalez, Curt Schilling and Matt Williams the Diamondbacks have won the National League West in three of the last six seasons.

Just down the street from the sports facilities, the Dodge Theatre opened in April 2002 and hosts a variety of events from concerts to Broadway plays, including boxing, family shows and corporate events. This $35 million downtown venue has the versatility to expand its capacity to as large as 5,000 or scale down to an intimate 3,000 and is another project spearheaded by Colangelo.

Colangelo's commitment to the Valley transcends sports and he is well-known as one of the city's most active community leaders. In recognition of his efforts in the community, Phoenix mayor Phil Gordon recently proclaimed March 26, 2004, Jerry Colangelo Day in the city of Phoenix.

He is currently chairman of the board of the Council of Leadership Education and Collaboration for a New Century, Southwest Leadership Foundation, National Italian American Sports Hall of Fame and Leadership Foundations of America, trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, national board member of National Italian American Foundation and Young Life International, vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership, chairman and CEO of Phoenix Community Alliance and was a leader in the establishment of Employers Against Domestic Violence.

Colangelo has served on the board of directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Athletes in Action and Phoenix Suns Charities. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports. In addition, he is past chairman of Arizona State University's Dean's Council of 100 and the Honor Board for Junior Achievement of Central Arizona, served as president of Valley Big Brothers was chairman of the board of the Christian Businessmen's Club. As campaign chair for United Way in 1994, Colangelo raised the standard for community fundraising when he secured pledges for $25 million.

The author of How You Ploy the Game, Colangelo gives insight into the world of the business of sports and his own life. Proceeds from the book go to Young Life of Arizona, Phoenix Suns Charities and Arizona Diamondbacks Charities.

Colangelo prepped at Bloom Township High in Chicago Heights, Ill., where he was an All-State basketball honoree as a senior. A left-hander, Colangelo was the top pitcher on the baseball team that also featured former Yankee hurler Jim Bouton. Upon graduation he had 66 scholarship offers for college basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts.

He enrolled at the University of Kansas, but transferred after his prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, left the Jayhawks for a pro contract. Colangelo transferred to the University of Illinois, where he earned All-Big Ten honors, captained the Illini as a senior and was later inducted into the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame. He also played two years of baseball at Illinois.

Colangelo grew up in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. His ties to "The Heights" and Bloom Township are evident in the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium, dedicated in his honor November 10, 1996, and Colangelo Way, a street named after him. Currently under construction in Chicago is the Colangelo Center that will house the Italian-American Athletic Hall of Fame.

Colangelo and his wife, Joan, whom he met on a blind date while at the University of Illinois, have four children: Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker, Bryan, and Mandie Colangelo, and six granddaughters and four grandsons, all of Phoenix.

Robert Sarver

Vice Chairman and Managing Partner

Success has followed Arizona native Robert G. Sarver in every stage of his career and now at age 42, the self-made entrepreneur embarks on another challenge as the new vice chairman and managing partner of the Phoenix Suns. The banking and real estate executive spearheaded an investment group that purchased the Suns, the oldest professional sports franchise in the Valley, for an NBA record $401 million on June 30, 2004.

Sarver, who became the youngest person ever to found a national bank at the age of 23, grew up a Suns fan and first attended games as a youth at Veterans Memorial Coliseum after receiving tickets as birthday gifts from Donald Diamond, one of the original owners (Richard Bloch and Donald Pitt).

Sarver's friendly and down-to-earth demeanor has helped him close numerous deals in the banking and real estate industry. He is currently Chairman and CEO of Western Alliance Bancorporation, one of the fastest growing bank holding companies in the country. He is also the founder of Southwest Value Partners (SVP); a real estate investment company that has acquired four million square feet of commercial office space, 3,500 apartments, 700 hotel rooms, shopping centers, commercial mortgages and over 2,000 acres of land in the last 14 years. Today, SVP is the largest office landlord in downtown San Diego. During his 14-year tenure with SVP, the company has never lost money on a deal.

A 1979 graduate of Sabino High School in Tucson, Sarver spent the first 35 years of his life in Arizona before moving to San Diego and has demonstrated a commitment to community and philanthropic contributions. Sarver sits on the Board of Trustees of the Sarver Heart Center at the University of Arizona, which he helped build, in memory of his late father, Jack, who was among the first in an experimental group to undergo bypass surgery. The center now houses over 40 physicians and researchers dedicated to fighting heart disease. He is also on the Board of Trustees of the Japanese American National Museum.

Introduced to the banking industry at 16, he worked part time at the end of his school day as a mortgage loan agent and internal auditor at American Savings for his late father, a well-known banker and hotel owner. A 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona, Sarver earned his bachelor's degree in business administration, and became a certified public accountant in 1983.

After founding the National Bank of Arizona in 1984, Sarver served as president until its sale to the Zions Bancorporation in 1994. Prior to the sale, National Bank of Arizona had become the largest independent bank in the state.

In 1995, Sarver led a group of investors in acquiring Grossmont Bank, San Diego's largest community bank. He was the Chairman and CEO of the holding company before its sale to the Zions Bancorporation in 1998.

Sarver led Zions' acquisition of Sumitomo Bank of California and merged the company with Grossmont, renaming it the California Bank and Trust, and became the Chairman and CEO in 1998. In 2002, he sold California Bank and Trust back to Zions.

He currently serves as director of SkyWest Airlines and is director of Meritage Corporation, which he is also a major shareholder. The Phoenix-based Meritage is the 14th largest homebuilder in the country spanning four states (Arizona, California, Texas, Nevada).

A lifelong sports fan, Sarver's quest to purchase an NBA team began with a conversation with University of Arizona basketball coach Lute Olson, a friend of Sarver's since 1980. Olson referred Sarver to Steve Kerr, a former player at Arizona and a 15-year NBA veteran, to assist him in buying an NBA franchise.

Sarver has a 9 handicap in golf and plays tennis and beach volleyball in his spare time. During his first date with his eventual wife, Penny Sanders, he invited her to watch the NCAA Basketball Tournament at his house.

He and his wife, a Kansas City, Mo. native, have three boys: Max (6), Jake (5) and Zach (3).

Bryan Colangelo

President and General Manager

It will be business as usual for Bryan Colangelo, who begins his sixth season as president and 10th as general manager. Colangelo, 39, is also part of the new ownership group that purchased the Suns on June 30, 2004 and will continue to oversee all basketball operations of the NBA franchise. The 16-year Suns executive is part of the newly-formed six-member management committee that will govern the club, in addition to his duties as an alternate governor on the NBA's Board of Governors.

Under Colangelo's leadership the Suns have assembled some of the league's premier young talent, highlighted by 2004 Olympians Shawn Marion and Amaré Stoudemire. In addition, Joe Johnson, one of the NBA's most improved players in 2003-04, along with promising 2003 rookies Leandro Barbosa, Zarko Cabarkapa and Maciej Lampe, and second-year swingman Casey Jacobsen formed what was the youngest team in the league last season. Coupled with the offseason free-agent signings of veteran two-time All-Star Steve Nash and up-and-comer Quentin Richardson, and the contract extension given to head coach Mike D'Antoni in May 2004, Colangelo has positioned the Suns to be one of the NBA's most improved teams in the 2004-05 campaign.

During Colangelo's tenure as general manager, the Suns have appeared in the NBA playoffs seven of the last nine seasons while posting an overall record of 377-329 (.534). Through various trades and free-agent moves, Colangelo has brought some of the league's best and most recognizable players to the Suns including All-NBA/All-Stars Tom Gugliotta, Anfernee "Penny" Hardaway, Jason Kidd, Stephon Marbury and Antonio McDyess. Colangelo and his staff have landed the team top-flight players like Marion, Stoudemire, Michael Finley and Nash via the draft.

Colangelo, who represents the Suns on the NBA's Competition Committee, previously held the positions of scout, assistant director of player personnel, and vice president/assistant general manager with the Suns, where he was directly involved in all aspects of player personnel, including evaluation, draft selection and transactions. He has also served as tournament director of the NIKE Desert Classic, an annual college All-Star basketball tournament held in Phoenix, from 1993 through 2001.

In April 2001, Colangelo was named to the USA Basketball Men's Senior National Team Committee for a four-year term charged with selecting teams for the 2001 Goodwill Games (Brisbane, Australia), the 2002 World Championship of Basketball (Indianapolis, Indiana), the 2003 FIBA Americas Olympic Qualifying Tournament (San Juan, Puerto Rico) and the 2004 Olympics (Athens, Greece). Colangelo's accomplishments and influence in sports and business were recognized nationally when he was named to the "40 Under 40" most influential group by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal in 2000. Closer to home, he was selected the top business leader under 40 by the Phoenix Business Journal in 1999.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Suns, Colangelo served as president of Phoenix Arena Sports (PAS), the owning entity of the Arizona Rattlers (Arena Football League) and the Phoenix Mercury (WNBA) from June 1991 through June 2002. He managed the business administration, team operations and marketing sales of the Rattlers, Mercury and other exhibition events including tennis, hockey, indoor soccer, boxing and volleyball. Highlights of his involvement with PAS include the 1997 and 1994 (the state of Arizona's first) World Championship campaigns of the Rattlers, setting the league attendance mark with the Phoenix Mercury in the WNBA's inaugural season, overseeing the Mercury's run into the 1998 WNBA Finals and his selection as the AFL's 1993 Executive of the Year. The Rattlers also won the AFL Commissioner's Award as the top franchise on and off the field for an unprecedented five straight years from 1996 to 2000.

A 1983 graduate of Central High in Phoenix, Colangelo remains an active community leader. He serves on the board of directors of the Arizona Sports Council (Grand Canyon State Games), Arizona Zoological Society, Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix and Phoenix Suns Charities. He recently completed posts on the board of directors of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce and the Phoenix Art Museum and he has served as co-chair of the annual Black Family and Child Services dinner. Appointed by former Phoenix Mayor Skip Rimsza in 1999, Colangelo recently completed a three-year term as an executive committee member and vice chairman of the Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC) and the Downtown Phoenix Partnership presented him with the Unsung Hero Award in 1997. He was also appointed by former Arizona Governor Jane Hull to serve on the Education 2000 Committee.

A 1987 graduate of Cornell University with a bachelor of science degree in business management and applied economics, Colangelo and his wife Barbara are parents of a son, Mattia and a daughter, Sofia.

Rick Welts

President and Chief Operating Officer

As president and chief operating officer, Rick Welts supervises all business operations of the Phoenix Suns and oversees the club's interests in Phoenix Arena Development, managing company of America West Arena, and Phoenix Arena Sports, owning entity of the Phoenix Mercury (WNBA) and Arizona Rattlers (AFL). He enters his third season with the organization.

Welts served successful stints previously in professional basketball with the NBA league office and the Seattle SuperSonics. His association with the NBA office spanned from 1982-99 until he departed as the league's executive vice president, chief marketing officer and president of NBA Properties. Welts helped guide the revitalization of the league and its image through strong marketing initiated by the NBA and he is credited with the creation of the NBA All-Star Weekend concept in 1984, now a league highlight and a standard in both the National Hockey League and Major League Baseball. He was also responsible for the 1992 Olympics "Dream Team" marketing program as the agent for USA Basketball. In 1998, Brandweek magazine named Welts "Marketer of the Year" for his role in creating and launching the WNBA. It was an honor he shared with WNBA President Val Ackerman.

During his tenure at the NBA office Welts supervised league departments including corporate sponsorship and media sales, consumer products, media relations, community relations, team services, special events, creative services, and retail including the NBA Store and the "NBA City" restaurant. He was also responsible for the NBA's international business activities, from placing preseason games in foreign countries to opening the league's first international office in Australia to supervising six regional offices and 75 international employees in Asia, Europe, Australia, Mexico and Canada.

Recruited in 1982 by David Stern, then the NBA's executive vice president for business and legal affairs, Welts joined the NBA as director of national promotions for NBA Properties (NBAP). He established the corporate sponsorship department for the league and in 1983 was named vice president of marketing, NBAP. When Stern became NBA commissioner in February 1984, he promoted Welts to vice president, marketing and communications. Four years later he was promoted again to president of NBA Properties, responsible for virtually all the league's off-court revenue businesses and marketing activities. He added the title of NBA executive vice president and chief marketing officer in 1996.

Welts entered the world of the NBA in 1969 as a ball boy for the Seattle SuperSonics. He remained with the Sonics for 10 years in several different capacities, including director of public relations during Seattle's back-to-back trips to the NBA Finals and the club's lone NBA Championship in 1979.

Following his stint with the Sonics he moved in 1979 to Bob Walsh & Associates, one of the first sports marketing firms in the United States. As vice president, he was involved in creating the first sports subscription cable service (Sonics SuperChannel) as well as representing athletes in the NBA, MLB and NFL.

Welts left the NBA in June 1999 to become president of Fox Sports Enterprises, a new entity that managed Fox interests in facilities and sports teams including the Los Angeles Dodgers, Dodger Stadium, STAPLES Center, the Los Angeles Kings, Madison Square Garden, the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

In June 2001 along with two partners, Casey Wasserman and Gary Stevenson, Welts became a partner in a sports consulting firm, ONSPORT. Prior to that start-up venture he served as president for one year of "First In Line," a joint venture between USA Network's TicketMaster & SFX.

A native of Seattle, Welts attended the University of Washington.

Dick Van Arsdale

Senior Executive Vice President

Dick Van Arsdale has been with the club since its inception in 1968. "The Original Sun" served as a player, television commentator, head coach and now enters his first season as senior executive vice president after seven seasons as senior vice president of player personnel and five years as vice president of player personnel.

A Suns color analyst for 15 years, Van Arsdale was named vice president of basketball operations in 1987. He was interim head coach for the final 26 games of the 1986-87 season and led Phoenix to 12 wins in the final 15 games and a 14-12 mark.

Van Arsdale, an NBA All-Rookie pick in 1965, was the Suns' first selection in the 1968 NBA Expansion Draft from New York. He scored the first point in Suns history and finished with 12,060 points in nine seasons as a Sun. In 12 NBA seasons, Van Arsdale totaled 15,079 points and played in three All-Star Games. His Suns jersey (5) was retired on Nov. 13, 1977, against Indiana.

"Van" and his twin, Tom, shared Mr. Basketball honors as seniors at Manual High in Indianapolis and both were All-Americans at Indiana University. He and his wife, Barbara, are parents of Jill and Jason, and have three grandchildren, Will, Lucy and Sofia.

Jim Pitman

Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration

Jim Pitman is in his sixth season as executive vice president of finance and administration, overseeing all accounting, finance, legal, information systems, and insurance aspects of the organization. The Suns' NBA finance chief also assists with salary cap and player contract management, and is part of the newly-formed six-member management committee governing the club.

In addition, Pitman serves as president of the Arizona Rattlers and is responsible for all business activities of the Arena Football League franchise. He also oversees the Downtown Digital Post (in-house production company) and Team Shops (retail merchandising stores).

Pitman serves as treasurer of Phoenix Suns Charities and is a board member of the America West Airlines Education Foundation and the Valley of the Sun YMCA.

Coming to the Suns in 1992 as assistant controller, he moved up to corporate controller and vice president of finance before his most recent promotion. Prior to the Suns, he spent nearly five years in the audit division of the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen with client responsibility in the professional sports, hospitality, and wholesale distribution industries.

A native of Rio, Ill., Pitman is a 1987 graduate of the University of Illinois where he earned a degree in accountancy.

Pitman and his wife Linda live in Phoenix. He has two children, Amy (11) and Kyle (9) and lists basketball, softball and golf as his favorite out-of-office activities.

Tom Ambrose

Senior Vice President, Community Affairs

Tom Ambrose celebrates his 32nd season with the Suns, with his current assignment as senior vice president of community affairs and executive director of Phoenix Suns Charities.

Ambrose is responsible for the Suns' extensive community affairs mission, which includes programs such as Read to Achieve, the Suns-Diamondbacks Education Academy, Suns Nite Hoops and the Banner Wheelchair Suns.

Ambrose joined the Suns in 1973 as public relations director, serving as the club's primary media liaison for 15 seasons before being elevated to vice president in 1987. Following 11 years as vice president of public relations, he spent six seasons as senior vice president of public affairs. In 1996, Ambrose was honored with the Splaver/McHugh "Tribute to Excellence" Award, presented by the NBA Public Relations Directors Association (NBA PRDA) to a public relations director who demonstrates the finest characteristics of public relations during his career.

Ambrose, a 26-year member of the Public Relations Society of America, was founder and first president of the NBA PRDA, authoring its code of ethics. He was instrumental in the founding of Phoenix Suns Charities, a foundation established to raise funds for non-profit organizations that serve youth in the areas of education, health and human services, the arts, sports and recreation.

Ambrose initiated the Suns' Fastbreak Magazine in 1988 and in 1992, he co-authored the book, A Silver Anniversary Celebration of the Phoenix Suns.

He is involved in many community organizations including the Arizona Chapter of the Partnership for a Drug Free America; Arizona Governor's Council on Health, Physical Fitness and Sports; Phoenix Zoo; American Heart Association; Community Care Connections; the Drugs Don't Work in Arizona program and the Phoenix Family Museum board.

Beginning in 1993, Leander served as studio host/producer of the Suns Gametime and Suns Halftime Shows for UPN 45. From 2000-03, he held the same responsibilities for the Suns Pre-game, Halftime and Post-game shows on Cox 9. Eddie Johnson, UPN 45 and FSN Arizona Color Analyst

A familiar face and voice returns as Eddie Johnson enters his fifth season as a color analyst for the team's television broadcasts. This season he will work alongside both Tom Leander and Gary Bender on the team's UPN 45 and FSN Arizona telecasts.

A 17-year NBA veteran, Johnson served as the color analyst on the Phoenix Mercury television broadcasts for the first two seasons of the team in 1997 and 1998. He also provided analysis for ESPN Radio during the WNBA playoffs, including the Mercury's run to the WNBA Championship Game in 1998.

Johnson was a guest analyst for NBA Showtime on NBC during the NBA Playoffs 2000 after serving as color analyst for Arizona State men's basketball broadcasts on Fox Sports Net during the 1999-00 season.

Johnson has the distinction of being the NBA's all-time leading scorer among players with no All-Star appearances with 19,202 points, an average of 16.0 points per game. One of the NBA's best pure jump shooters, "E.J." shot .472 from the field and .840 from the foul line while playing for Kansas City/Sacramento, Phoenix, Seattle, Charlotte, Indiana, Denver and Houston. His top two scoring seasons were 22.9 points in 1984-85 and 21.9 points in 1983-84.

Originally a second-round pick (No. 29) by the Kansas City Kings in 1981, Johnson spent six years in the Kings organization before he was traded to Phoenix on June 21, 1987 for Ed Pinckney and a second-round pick. The University of Illinois graduate played three-plus seasons for the Suns from 1987-90. In the 1988-89 campaign he averaged 21.5 points (third highest scoring average of career) and shot .497 from the field as he helped Phoenix improve to a 55-27 record from 28-54 the previous season.

The Chicago native has maintained a Phoenix residence since his Suns playing days and regularly hosts summer basketball camps (www.jumpshotclub.com), and recently announced 360 Youth Basketball Academy. He and his wife Joy have a son Justin and daughter Jade.

Originally selected by the Suns in the first round (14th overall) of the 1988 NBA Draft after a standout career at Central Michigan, Majerle soon emerged as a fan favorite because of his tremendous work ethic. He played 14 NBA seasons including his first seven seasons (1988-95) in the Valley of the Sun, averaging 14.6 points, 5.9 rebounds and 3.3 assists, before he was traded to Cleveland on Oct. 7, 1995. After one year with the Cavaliers, Majerle signed as a free agent with Miami and played five seasons under head coach Pat Riley before concluding his career as a Sun in 2001-02. Majerle was inducted into the Suns Ring of Honor on March 9, 2003.

The Suns' all-time leading three-point shooter, Majerle sank his 800th trey of his Suns career on his final shot with 25.3 seconds left vs. Dallas on April 17, 2002 in the season finale. He holds the club record for most three-pointers in a season with 1999 in 1994-95 and set the NBA Finals record with 17 three-pointers made in a series against Chicago in 1993. A three-time All-Star (1992, 1993, 1995), the 6-6 swingman became the first reserve to be voted to start on an All-Star team in 1995 when Phoenix hosted the event.

Mike D'Antoni
Head Coach

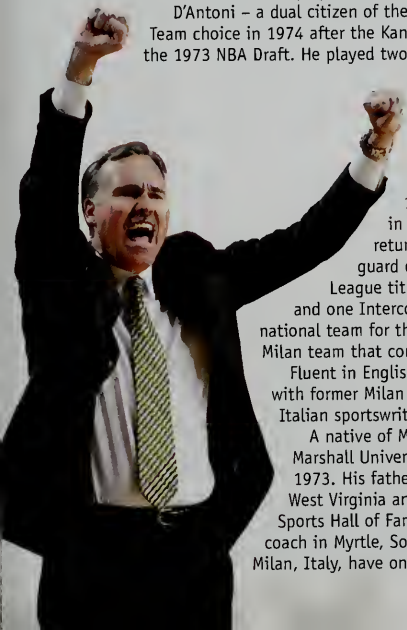
Mike D'Antoni's passion for basketball has given him an up-close view of the world. His love for the sport has taken him from the mountains of West Virginia to the professional ranks of the NBA and ABA, and across Italy and throughout Europe.

Long regarded as an excellent teacher and communicator, D'Antoni was named the franchise's 12th head coach in team history on Dec. 10, 2003 after replacing Frank Johnson in midseason. In his first season as head coach of the Suns, D'Antoni guided the NBA's youngest roster to a 21-40 mark after replacing Frank Johnson, despite inheriting a completely overhauled roster due to several midseason trades and a team riddled with injuries. D'Antoni, who came to the Suns with a reputation of being an offensive guru, installed an up-tempo style of play as the Suns increased their scoring by more than three points per game after the coaching change.

D'Antoni's resume includes over three decades of pro basketball experience as a player, coach, front office executive and scout in the NBA, ABA and the Italian League. This is the second NBA head coaching stint for D'Antoni, who served as head coach for the Denver Nuggets in the NBA shortened-lockout season in 1998-99 and was the club's director of player personnel in 1997-98. He was also on the bench for Portland as an assistant coach under Mike Dunleavy in the 2000-01 season and was a scout for San Antonio during the 1999-00 campaign. In addition, D'Antoni was an analyst for NBA.com following the 1998-99 regular season. He also worked as an analyst for the pay-per-view broadcasts of Team USA throughout the 2003 FIBA Americas Men's Olympic Tournament in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Prior to joining the Suns staff on June 25, 2002 as the lead assistant coach, D'Antoni coached Benetton Treviso of the Italian League and led the club to the Italian League championship after a 28-8 season. His team included former Sun Charlie Bell, ex-NBA player Tyus Edney and 2002 NBA top 15 draftees Nikoloz Tskitishvili (fifth to Denver) and Bostjan Nachbar (15th to Houston).

An Italian League legend, D'Antoni also coached Benetton from 1994-97 when his team captured the Cup of Europe and Cup of Italy in 1995 and won the league title in 1996-97 after a 22-4 regular season. Prior to that he guided Philips Milan for four seasons from 1990-94 and led the club to the 1993 Korac Cup. During his Italian tenure D'Antoni led his teams to the playoffs each season and was twice voted the league's Coach of the Year.



D'Antoni – a dual citizen of the United States and Italy – was an All-NBA Rookie Second Team choice in 1974 after the Kansas City-Omaha Kings selected him with the 20th pick in the 1973 NBA Draft. He played two-plus seasons for the Kings, where he was a roommate of current Sacramento Kings Head Coach Rick Adelman, before joining the ABA's Spirits of St. Louis and NBA's San Antonio Spurs.

After just two games with the Spurs in November 1976, D'Antoni moved to Italy where he played 13 seasons for Milan and became the club's all-time leading scorer. In 1978, he tried out for the Chicago Bulls, but opted to remain in Italy, where he stayed until he was lured by the Nuggets to return to the NBA in 1997. Prior to that, he was an assistant coach under Cleveland Head Coach Mike Fratello for two seasons (1997-99), concentrating his efforts on big man development.

Over his career he averaged 14.6 points, 3.0 rebounds and 2.7 assists in 666 contests, including 12.4 points, 2.4 rebounds and 2.5 assists in 224 career games with Phoenix.

Chapman ranks 49th on the all-time NBA list with 805 career made three-pointers, but perhaps his most famous long-range range shot came in the 1997 playoffs in Game 4 against Seattle when he sank a running, off-balance shot with 1.9 seconds left to send the game into overtime. He also set the NBA playoffs record with nine three-pointers (since matched by Ray Allen and Vince Carter, both in 2001 playoffs) and scored a career playoff-high 42 points on May 1, 1997. He guided the Mercury to an 8-26 record in 2003.

Prior to rejoining the Suns in 1998-99 as a community relations representative, Shumate was an assistant coach for the Raptors for three seasons, providing on-the-floor coaching, advance and college scouting, and helping develop players such as Marcus Camby and Damon Stoudamire.

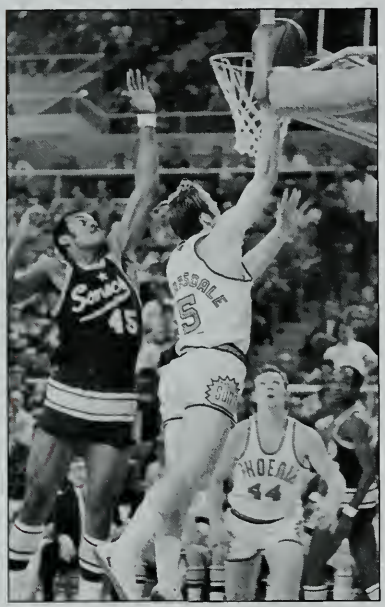
HISTORY

The Beginning Of A Franchise...

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors awarded a franchise to Phoenix. The new team's leadership came from owners Richard Bloch of Los Angeles along with Donald Pitt and Donald Diamond of Tucson. They brought together a group of investors that included entertainers Henry Mancini, Tony Curtis, Ed Ames, Andy Williams and Bobby Gentry.

Jerry Colangelo, former Illinois basketball star and member of the Chicago Bulls' organization, was selected as the club's first general manager at age 28. Soon after, he named Johnny "Red" Kerr as the franchise's first head coach. The name "Suns" was chosen through a contest (28,000 entries submitted). Since several entries were marked "Suns," a drawing was held and Selinda King of Phoenix was selected as the person who officially named the new franchise.



Dick Van Arsdale scores the first basket in Suns history on a feed from Dick Snyder as they defeated Seattle 116-107 in the first regular season game at the Coliseum.

In the May 6, 1968 Expansion Draft, forward Dick Van Arsdale, who was left unprotected by the New York Knicks, became "The Original Sun." Van Arsdale scored 12,060 points as a Sun, and would later have his jersey (5) retired.

The Suns played their first game October 18, 1968, and defeated Seattle, 116-107, before 7,112 fans at Veterans Memorial Coliseum. However, Phoenix finished its first season at 16-66. In a coin flip between the Eastern and Western Conference teams with the poorest records (Milwaukee and Phoenix), the Suns called "heads" as the coin came up "tails." Milwaukee claimed Lew Alcindor, later known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, and captured the NBA title two years later.

Success, however, came more quickly than skeptics first thought when the Suns won a second coin flip and the rights to ABA star Connie Hawkins. Hawkins had been banned from the NBA for seven years due to unfounded implications of association with gamblers during college at the University of Iowa.

The Suns made the playoffs in their second season, battling the Los Angeles Lakers to the seven-game limit in the conference semifinals. With the emergence of eventual four-time All-Star and NBA Hall of Famer Hawkins, and the club's impressive playoff performance, the Suns had arrived on the NBA map.

...The Greatest Game Ever Played

Following two tough seasons under coach John MacLeod, things brightened when the 1975-76 club, headed by Rookie of the Year Alvan Adams and Paul Westphal, parlayed a 42-40 record and wild card playoff berth into the Western Conference title and a trip to the NBA Finals against Boston. Game Five of that series has been called "the greatest game ever played," as Boston won 128-126 in a triple-overtime thriller. The Celtics eventually captured the title, 4-2, but the "Sunderella" Suns demonstrated that they had come a long way in just eight seasons.

Phoenix Rising...

On October 14, 1987, Colangelo led a group of Phoenix-area investors that purchased the team for $44.5 million. He was then named president and chief executive officer.

Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second stint as Suns head coach prior to the 1988-89 season and engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in NBA history. On February 25, 1988, the Suns traded All-Star Larry Nance to Cleveland with Mike Sanders and a first-round pick for Kevin Johnson, Mark

West, Tyrone Corbin and first- and second-round picks. On July 5, 1988, the Suns made NBA history by signing the league's first unrestricted free agent, Tom Chambers.

A revamped 1988-89 Suns squad had just one holdover player, Jeff Hornacek, remaining from two seasons before. The Suns finished 55-27 and were the NBA's top scoring team. For the first time in NBA history, a team won four post-season awards: Coach of the Year (Fitzsimmons), Most Improved Player (KJ), Sixth Man (Eddie Johnson) and Executive of the Year (Colangelo).

During 1988-89, Colangelo moved ahead with plans for a new downtown arena that the Suns could call home. In a unique partnership with the city of Phoenix, the $89 million America West Arena was born. Construction of the arena began during the summer of 1990.

...A New Era Of Basketball

Celebrating their 25th year in the NBA, the Suns rocked the basketball world with a blockbuster trade. On June 17, 1992, the team acquired Charles Barkley from Philadelphia for Hornacek, Tim Perry, and Andrew Lang. On November 7, 1992, the Suns opened their new home, America West Arena, with a new head coach in Westphal, a new logo, and new uniforms.

The 1992-93 club finished the season with a club-record and NBA-best 62-20 record and Barkley earned the NBA's MVP award.

The Suns made NBA playoff history by coming back to beat the Lakers in the opening round after losing the first two at home. They defeated San Antonio in six games, Seattle in seven, and returned to the Finals for the first time since 1976. After losing the first two at home to the defending World Champion Chicago Bulls, the Suns went to the Windy City and won two of three, including a 129-121 triple overtime affair in Game Three. John Paxson gave the Bulls their third-straight NBA title after sinking a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds left in Game Six at Phoenix.

Danny Ainge and Michael Jordan faced off in the 1993 NBA Finals. Chicago defeated the Suns 4-2 in an exciting series.

The 1994-95 squad featured six current or former All-Stars and looked primed to capture its first title, but injuries haunted the club. The most severe injury came as the team was playing its best. With the Suns holding the league's best record at 36-10 on February 6, 1995, newly-acquired Danny Manning tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee and missed the rest of the season.

The 1995 All-Star Game was held at America West Arena, as Barkley and Majerle were starters on the winning West squad coached by Westphal. After the break, the team won its second Pacific Division title in three seasons and earned the No. 2 seed in the playoffs behind San Antonio. The Suns swept Portland in the first round and faced Houston for the second-straight season in the semifinals. The Suns took a 3-1 series lead, but the Rockets won three-straight and went on to win their second-straight NBA title.

A New Chapter Unfolds...

Suns history has been bright under the direction of Jerry Colangelo. The Suns have the NBA's seventh-best all-time record entering the 2004-05 season with a mark of 1582-1338 (.542). They trail only the Lakers (.620, 2727-1674), Boston (.597, 2692-1819), San Antonio (.580, 1313-951), Portland (.547, 1508-1248), Utah (.544, 1321-1107) and Milwaukee (.543, 1586-1334) in winning percentage. Wanting to transition out of ownership after serving as the face of the franchise since the club's inception, Colangelo set into motion a plan to ensure the team's 36-year legacy by seeking out a new owner who shared his same vision and commitment to both the community and the game of basketball. On June 30, 2004, he sold the franchise to a group headed by banking and real estate executive, Robert Sarver, an Arizona native, beginning a new chapter in the history of the Phoenix Suns. It will be business as usual as Colangelo remains Chairman and CEO until the sale of the team is complete in June 2007, and then will retain the title of chairman until 2012.

Season Review 68-69

16-66

On January 22, 1968, the NBA Board of Governors granted a franchise to the city of Phoenix. On April 25, 1968, the name "SUNS" was selected in a contest sponsored by The Arizona Republic. The winning entry was submitted by Mrs. Selinda King of Phoenix.

The Suns began building their team by naming Johnny "Red" Kerr as head coach. Kerr, who had coached the Chicago Bulls for the previous two years, was the NBA's Coach of the Year in 1967. Next was the 1968 NBA College Draft. Phoenix's first-ever selection was Gary Gregor, a 6-7 forward from South Carolina. The Suns continued to build the young squad by making Dick Van Arsdale the first player taken in the expansion draft. Van Arsdale had played the previous three years with New York. Phoenix also selected guard Gail Goodrich, a third-year pro, from the Los Angeles Lakers.

On October 18, the Suns opened their rookie season with a 116-107 victory over Seattle as 7,112 fans filled Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Goodrich, now in the NBA Hall of Fame, led the team with 27 points, 10 assists and nine rebounds while Van Arsdale pitched in 21 points. The Suns went on to finish the month with a 4-3 mark. But that was the last time they would be above .500 as they suffered through the rest of their first season to finish with a 16-66 record.

Goodrich and Van Arsdale led the Suns averaging 23.8 and 21.0 points, respectively. Goodrich finished sixth in the league in scoring and third as a guard behind Baltimore's Earl Monroe and Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson. Both players also appeared in the 1969 NBA All-Star game in Baltimore.

Season Review 69-70

39-43

With the addition of veterans Paul Silas and Connie Hawkins, the young Suns enjoyed a 23-game turnaround and their first-ever trip to the NBA playoffs. Silas, obtained in a trade with Atlanta for Gary Gregor, gave the team additional inside strength as he averaged nearly 12 rebounds. Following a legendary two-year stint in the ABA and one year with the world-famous Harlem Globetrotters, Hawkins provided amazing offensive talents.

On January 2, with the Suns at 15-23, Head Coach Johnny Kerr resigned just five hours prior to that night's game against San Diego. General Manager Jerry Colangelo took over as head coach and led the Suns to a 24-20 mark over the rest of the regular season and a bid to the NBA Playoffs.

The Suns drew the mighty L.A. Lakers in the first round and dropped the opening game in Los Angeles, 112-128. But the Suns showed character as they picked up the next three games behind superb play from Silas, Hawkins and Gail Goodrich. However, the likes of Wilt Chamberlain, Jerry West and Elgin Baylor were too much for the Suns as the Lakers clinched the series in seven games.

Dick Van Arsdale made his second appearance in the All-Star Game along with the team's scoring leader Hawkins. The Hawk also earned All-NBA First Team honors.

Season Review 70-71

48-34

Dick Van Arsdale returned for his third season with Phoenix as the only original Sun remaining. Offseason trades brought veterans Mel Counts and Clem Haskins to the team. In spite of the success the club enjoyed at the tail-end of the 1969-70 season, General Manager Jerry Colangelo felt the Suns needed a "career" coach. He set out to find a teacher and a motivator who could mold the Suns' young players. On June 5, 1970, Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons joined the Suns as head coach.

Fitzsimmons had led the Kansas State Wildcats to the Big Eight title the previous year, and brought a sense of passion and "Purple Pride" to the Valley. The club responded to his enthusiasm.

Phoenix posted its best finish with a 48-34 record, fourth best in the league. That included the team's best month ever with an 11-4 mark in January. However, due to the Suns' place in the tough Midwest Division, the team failed to make the playoffs.

Paul Silas led the team in rebounding for the second straight season pulling down a franchise-best 12.5 per game including a team record 27 vs. Cincinnati on January 18. Van Arsdale led the club in scoring with a 21.9 average while Connie Hawkins netted 20.9 points per game. Van Arsdale and Hawkins were again named NBA All-Stars.

Season Review 71-72

49-33

Cotton Fitzsimmons began his second year at the helm with great anticipation. The Suns drafted Dennis "Moe" Layton, a 6-1 point guard from USC who played previously at Phoenix College. The Suns opened the season with a starting lineup of Clem Haskins and Dick Van Arsdale at guard, Neal Walk at center and Connie Hawkins and Paul Silas at the forward spots.

On March 14, the Suns obtained the rights to Charlie Scott from the Boston Celtics in exchange for future considerations. Scott, a 6-6 guard from North Carolina, had played for the Virginia Squires of the ABA, where he averaged 35 points and was the 1971 ABA Co-Rookie of the Year along with Kentucky's Dan Issel.

Phoenix compiled a then, club record mark of 49-33, improving for the fourth consecutive year. Despite having the sixth-best record in the NBA, the Suns finished behind Milwaukee and Chicago in the tough Midwest Division and failed to qualify for the playoffs.

Hawkins and Silas represented the West team in the All-Star Game. It was Hawkins' third-straight appearance, as he led the West squad to a 112-110 win with 13 points.

Silas was named as the Suns' Most Valuable Player by the fans as he led the team in rebounding for the third straight year (11.9). Hawkins led the club in scoring with a 21.0 average while Van Arsdale added 19.7 points per game. The Suns topped their previous best in attendance totaling 342,922 fans, an average of 8,346 per contest. Phoenix also became only the fourth team in league history to lead the NBA in free throws attempted, free throws made and free throw accuracy.

Season Review 72-73

38-44

The Suns began the season under the direction of the franchise's fourth head coach, Bill van Breda Kolff. He replaced Cotton Fitzsimmons, who left in the offseason to coach the Atlanta Hawks. However, seven games into the season, van Breda Kolff was dismissed and General Manager Jerry Colangelo once again assumed the coaching duties for the remainder of the season. He guided the Suns to a 35-40 record.

Phoenix played .500 ball through mid-January but struggled through the second half of the season, finishing third in its first season playing in the Pacific Division. The season did not lack for outstanding individual performances as Charlie Scott led the club in scoring with a franchise record 25.3 average and finished fifth in the NBA. He also became just the 10th guard in league history to score more than 2,000 points. Scott and Connie Hawkins were named to the Western Conference All-Star team. It was Scott's first appearance while Hawkins made his fourth consecutive visit.

Neal Walk enjoyed his finest season as a pro, averaging 20.2 points and 12.4 rebounds. He grabbed 1,006 rebounds, the only Suns center to this day to have totaled over 1,000 boards in a single season. Rookie Corky Calhoun from the University of Pennsylvania was the only Sun to play in all 82 games.

Season Review 73-74

John MacLeod took the Suns coaching reins from General Manager Jerry Colangelo during the offseason. The youthful MacLeod had coached the previous six years at the University of Oklahoma, leading the Sooners to a 90-69 record and two trips to the National Invitational Tournament.

New to the team were rookie Mike Bantom, the eighth pick in the 1973 NBA draft, and Keith Erickson, who was acquired in the first month of the season from the L.A. Lakers in exchange for All-Star and future Hall of Famer Connie Hawkins. Phoenix went on a 10-game skid early in the season as they were learning a new system under MacLeod and playing one of the roughest portions of their schedule. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 30-52 mark, their lowest number of wins since their inaugural season.

Charlie Scott made his second-straight appearance in the All-Star Game and finished the season averaging 25.4 points but missed the final 29 games with a broken arm. Dick Van Arsdale averaged 17.8 points and led the Suns in field goal percentage (.500). Erickson was voted by fans as the Suns' Most Outstanding Player.

Season Review 74-75

The season was preceded by one of the largest transactions in Suns history with center Neal Walk and a second-round draft pick going to New Orleans in exchange for Curtis Perry, Dennis Awtrey, Nate Hawthorne and a first-round pick in 1976.

Also new to the team was rookie John Shumate, a 6-8 forward from Notre Dame who was the fourth pick in the 1974 NBA Draft. Unfortunately, Shumate had to sit out his rookie season so he could receive treatment for blood clots. Perry had his best season as a pro averaging 13 points and 12 rebounds, winning both the Suns' Most Outstanding and Most Popular Player awards.

Charlie Scott, who finished the season as the Suns' scoring leader (24.3), was the club's lone All-Star representative. On January 14, 1975, Phoenix became the "Professional Basketball Capital of the World." The 25th annual All-Star Game was the first one ever played in Phoenix. NBA Commissioner J. Walter Kennedy was presiding over his final NBA All-Star Game before retiring.

In late February, the Suns had a shot at the NBA Playoffs, but injuries to Dick Van Arsdale and Keith Erickson knocked them from contention. The Suns finished fourth in the Pacific Division with a 32-50 mark.

Season Review 75-76

The Suns opened what proved to be one of their most exciting seasons by winning 14 of their first 23 games. The 14-9 start was the best in franchise history. A string of injuries and a puzzling mid-season slump had the Suns winning only four of their next 22, but after the All-Star break the Suns caught fire going 24-13 and storming into the playoffs against the Seattle SuperSonics. The team clinched its first playoff berth in six years by defeating the L.A. Lakers, 113-98, at Veterans Memorial Coliseum.

There were several reasons for the Suns turnaround: a Charlie Scott for Paul Westphal trade in the offseason, the drafting of Alvan Adams and Ricky Sobers, the acquisition of Al Bianchi as assistant coach, and the midseason trade that sent John Shumate to Buffalo and brought Garfield Heard to Phoenix.

Phoenix eliminated Seattle 4-2, then went on to upset the World Champion Golden State Warriors and Rick Barry, 4-3, to gain a berth in the NBA Finals against the fabled Boston Celtics, led by Dave Cowens and John Havlicek. The Suns lost the first two games in Boston, but came back to knot the series with a pair of victories in Phoenix.

Game 5 will no doubt go down in basketball history as one of the most exciting games ever played: A triple-overtime contest that eluded the Suns by a few precious seconds and cost them the World Championship. Boston won the series 4-2.

Alvan Adams was named the NBA Rookie of the Year and became only the 10th first-year player to be named to the midseason All-Star Game. General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

Season Review 76-77

34-48

It could have been and should have been the best of times. With the addition of first-round draft pick Ron Lee, and Tom and Dick Van Arsdale playing together for the first time as pros, the Suns seemed certain to make another strong playoff run. Indeed, the Suns entered the year with the highest of expectations, but had to watch helplessly as injuries eventually claimed the entire starting front line.

Gar Heard and Curtis Perry each missed nearly half the season and Alvan Adams, who was injured in the fourth game of the season, did not regain top form until February. The Suns had all players healthy and available for duty for only six games the entire season and finished 34-48, fifth in the Pacific Division.

Paul Westphal led the club in scoring (21.3) for the second straight season and was named to the All-NBA First Team for the first time in his career. Ron Lee was named to the All-Rookie Team and the Suns set a new home attendance mark, averaging more than 10,000 fans per game.

Westphal was voted to the starting unit of the West squad at the All-Star Game in Milwaukee, scored 20 points and nearly captured the game's MVP award. As a team, the Suns set a new assist record (2,100) breaking the record they set in 1975-76. At the conclusion of the season, both Van Arsdales retired from the NBA.

On November 19, 1976, future Hall of Famer Connie Hawkins became the first Suns player to have his uniform number retired (42).

Season Review 77-78

49-33

The Suns announced a blockbuster trade just before the opening of the season: Ricky Sobers to Indiana for Don Buse, an All-Star and the NBA leader in both assists and steals. With Buse and rookie Walter Davis in the starting lineup, the Suns bolted from the gate and were 19-11 by Christmas and 34-16 by the February All-Star break. They finished with a 49-33 record, fourth best in the league, but were second in the Pacific Division behind the formidable Portland Trail Blazers, led by Bill Walton.

It was a record year for the Suns in many ways. A franchise record was set for attendance (11,464 per game). On the court, the Suns set NBA records for team steals in a season (1,059) as well as tying the league mark for assists (2,338). Davis and Paul Westphal were among the league's top 10 scorers, both averaging better than 24 points per game; both were named All-NBA Second Team and both participated for the West at the All-Star Game in Atlanta.

At the All-Star break, the Suns lost Curtis Perry with back problems and went the rest of the season with five rookies on the roster, more than any other NBA club. In the opening round of the playoffs the Suns were upset in two-straight games by the Milwaukee Bucks.

Davis went on to become the league's Rookie of the Year, the second such distinction for a Suns' player since Alvan Adams won the award following 1975-76 season. Buse was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team while Ron Lee led the league with 2.7 steals per game.

BACK ROW: Ronnie Lee, Curtis Perry, Alvan Adams, Dennis Awtrey, Bayard Forrest, Alvin Scott, Ira Terrell, Garfield Heard.

Season Review 78-79

Phoenix opened the regular season with the same starting lineup that began the 1977-78 season: Walter Davis and Gar Heard at forward, Alvan Adams at center, with Paul Westphal and Don Buse at guard. The Suns won five of their first six games and were 24-14 by January 1. By the All-Star break, the Suns were 32-20. For the third-straight year, Westphal was an All-Star starter, and Davis made it for the second-straight year.

On January 12, 1979, the Suns obtained Leonard "Truck" Robinson from the New Orleans Jazz in exchange for Ron Lee, Marty Byrnes, first-round picks in 1979 and 1980 and undisclosed cash. With an emotional overtime win over Seattle at Phoenix on March 30, the Suns qualified for the playoffs for the second year in a row and the fourth time in their 11 NBA seasons.

The regular season ended in spectacular fashion with the Suns capturing a record 50th win in the season's 80th game.

Phoenix led the NBA in steals with 915 (11.2 per game). Westphal was named All-NBA First Team, Davis was named to the second team. Buse was again named to the All-Defensive First Team. In the playoffs, the Suns got by Portland (2-1) and thrashed Kansas City (4-1), but lost to eventual World Champion Seattle SuperSonics, 4-3, in a hard-fought Western Conference Finals series.

Season Review 79-80

55-27

Phoenix opened the regular season on October 12 with a starting lineup of Walter Davis and Truck Robinson at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Don Buse and Paul Westphal at guard. The Suns were the only team in the NBA with five former All-Star participants as starters. By the All-Star break, Phoenix was 35-19.

On February 15, the Suns obtained center Rich Kelley from the New Jersey Nets in exchange for a second-round draft pick in 1983, a first-round pick in 1982 and cash. The Suns chased Seattle and the L.A. Lakers for the Pacific Division lead for virtually the entire 82-game schedule, moving into a tie for the lead in late November and early December. For the majority of the season, the Suns were locked in third place in the Pacific.

For the second season in a row Buse, Adams, Davis and Westphal all finished with over 300 assists, the only time in NBA history that four players on the same team had accomplished the feat. Davis and Westphal played in the NBA All-Star Game in Washington. Westphal and Davis were named to the All-NBA First Team and Second Teams, respectively. In the playoffs, the Suns defeated Kansas City, 2-1, then lost to the L.A. Lakers, 4-1.

In the winter of 1980, the Phoenix Suns Gorilla arrived on the scene in the form of an Eastern Onion singing telegram messenger. He was invited back, and has "hung" around ever since.

Season Review 80-81

57-25

When the Suns opened the season, questions surrounded newcomer Dennis Johnson, who had come to the Suns in a controversial deal that sent Paul Westphal to Seattle. There also were doubts about the Suns ability to adjust to the move of All-Star forward Walter Davis to the backcourt and the addition of Jeff Cook into the starting lineup at forward. The Suns responded with one of their most successful seasons ever, finishing with a then club-record 57 wins en route to their first division title and the best record in the Western Conference. Phoenix was out of first place for only two days.

The Suns' 36-5 home record tied their 1979-80 mark as the best in the club's history and their 21-20 record on the road was the first-ever winning road record. The Suns did not lose more than two games in a row all season.

The Suns played their 1,000th game on November 12, 1980, a 130-127 win over the visiting San Antonio Spurs.

The All-Star Game in Cleveland had a distinctive Phoenix flavor with John MacLeod and the Suns coaching staff at the helm of the West squad. Davis was voted to a starting forward position by the fans and Johnson and Truck Robinson were named to the team by a vote of Western Conference coaches.

In the playoffs, the Suns were surprised by a gritty Kansas City Kings club, led by former Suns' coach Cotton Fitzsimmons, that took the Western Conference Semifinals 4-3. At season's end, Johnson was named to the All-NBA First Team and All-Defensive First Team. Suns General Manager Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the second time by The Sporting News.

Season Review 81-82

RECORD
46-36

The Suns were dealt a crippling blow just days before the season opened when guard Walter Davis suffered a fractured elbow in the final preseason game. Kyle Macy joined Dennis Johnson, Alvan Adams, Truck Robinson and Jeff Cook in the Suns' opening night starting lineup. Seeking the right combinations and the proper chemistry, 1981-82 became a season of constant change and experimentation as Head Coach John MacLeod utilized 21 different starting units.

Alvin Scott supplanted Cook in the starting lineup and later in the season Scott was supplanted by Adams, who shifted from his normal center position to allow Rich Kelley into the starting lineup. Davis began his comeback in late December, but it became clear his elbow, still joined by surgical tension wires and screws, would keep him from reaching top form. He was used in a sixth man role most of the year.

With a month remaining in the season, the Suns found themselves embroiled in a heated Western Conference playoff race. The Suns finished the regular season with a 46-36 mark, good enough for third place in the NBA Pacific Division and a playoff berth. Phoenix opened postseason play by defeating Denver, 2-1, in a hard-fought series, winning the deciding game on the Nuggets' home court. In the Western Conference Semifinals, however, the Suns ran into a L.A. Lakers juggernaut and were swept by the Lakers (4-0) who went on to sweep San Antonio, then defeated Philadelphia to win the NBA Championship. Johnson was named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team and was the lone Suns representative at the midseason All-Star Game in New Jersey.

Season Review 82-83

53-29

The Suns were ready for change. They traded Truck Robinson to New York for forward Maurice Lucas. They installed second-year man Larry Nance at the small forward slot and welcomed back a healthy Walter Davis at guard. The only holdovers in the starting lineup from 1981-82 were center Alvan Adams and guard Dennis Johnson.

As the season progressed, so did Nance. He finished the year by leading the Suns in field goal percentage (.550) and set a new franchise record for blocked shots in a season with 217.

In spite of their success, the Suns had a glaring weakness at backup center, where they juggled Jeff Cook, Joel Kramer and Lucas. With starting center Adams undersized at 6-9, the Suns needed help in the middle. Phoenix traded Cook, cash, a third-round draft pick in 1983 and other considerations to Cleveland in exchange for 7-1 center James Edwards, who was coming back after early season knee surgery.

Following the All-Star break, the Suns won 23 of the 30 games and finished the season as the hottest team in the league, winning six-straight. Phoenix won 14 of its final 16 games and in the process matched its best-ever season road record (21-20). The Suns qualified for postseason play for the sixth-straight year and the seventh time in eight seasons, but were eliminated by Denver, 2-1, in the opening round.

Season Review 83-84

41-41

Due to a flood of injuries to such key players as James Edwards, Rick Robey and Paul Westphal, Suns Head Coach John MacLeod was forced to juggle his starters, searching for a consistency that did not materialize until late in the season.

The Suns struggled on the road. Only their fine home court record (31-10) kept them in the playoff race until the late stages of the season, when they put together six-straight wins, their longest winning streak of the season.

Walter Davis returned to the Western Conference All-Star squad and Larry Nance won the NBA Slam Dunk Championship in Denver.

The Suns saved their most remarkable performances for the playoffs. They defeated Portland in a hard-fought five-game first-round series, winning the fifth and deciding game on the Trail Blazers' home court. They proceeded to upend Midwest Division Champion Utah in six games in the next round, highlighted by a remarkable 111-110 overtime win in Game Four at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The Suns then took on the L.A. Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. The Suns pushed the talented Lakers to six games, defeating them 135-127 in overtime in Game 3 in Phoenix and staving off elimination with a 126-121 upset win in Los Angeles with a dogged performance in Game 5. The Suns were finally eliminated in Game 6, but only when their final shot didn't connect in a 99-97 nail-biter.

Season Review 84-85

36-46

The addition of promising rookie guard Jay Humphries gave the Suns renewed hope for the season. The optimism proved fleeting however, when the Suns' leading scorer and five-time All-Star Walter Davis crashed to the Inglewood Forum floor on October 9 during a preseason game. Davis would miss the first two-thirds of the season with three torn ligaments in his left knee and would never regain full mobility during a courageous comeback attempt.

Rick Robey, Mike Sanders, Kyle Macy and Larry Nance also would miss considerable time due to injury, bringing the Suns total player games missed for the year to 266.

The Suns jumped out to a surprising 5-0 start, the best beginning in the history of the franchise. It was Nance who assumed the leadership role with Davis gone, leading the club in scoring (19.9) and virtually every other statistical category. Nance was named the NBA's first Player of the Week for the season. He would go on to make his first appearance in an NBA All-Star Game.

The Suns ranked second in the NBA in assists (2,335) dishing out more than 2,000 for the 10th year in a row. They qualified for the playoffs, but were knocked out 3-0 in the first round by the L.A. Lakers.

The Suns averaged 12,035 fans per game, setting a new attendance record for the franchise, breaking the old mark of 11,883 per game set during the 1981-82 campaign.

The Suns ended the regular season with "Suns Reunion '85," bringing back 24 former Suns players and coaches to participate in a weekend of Suns nostalgia, capped by an exhibition basketball game.

Season Review 85-86

In the weeks preceding the opener, the Suns confirmed their desire to go with youth and speed by trading veteran Maurice Lucas to the Los Angeles Lakers and allowing Kyle Macy to sign with Chicago. All-Star forward Larry Nance was a contract holdout throughout training camp and preseason before coming to terms one game into the regular season. Opening night's starting lineup consisted of Jay Humphries and Walter Davis at guard, Alvan Adams at center, with Mike Sanders and Charles Jones at forward.

Phoenix got off to the then worst start in franchise history, going 0-9. During that period, the Suns successfully negotiated for the services of Georgi Glouchkov, a center from the Bulgarian National Team, who became the first Eastern Bloc player to play in the NBA. At first, Glouchkov captured national media attention, as well as the affection of Phoenix fans, but communication difficulty, not to mention achilles tendinitis, would drastically curtail his playing time as the season progressed.

Both Davis and Adams passed the 12,000-point plateau for their NBA careers with Davis taking over the Suns all-time scoring lead. Davis led the team in scoring (21.8), while Nance became the club's top rebounder (8.5). For the first time in their history, the Suns did not place a player on the squad for the NBA All-Star Game.

The Suns attendance held its own for the season, with an average of 11,121 per game. The Suns could never recover from their 0-9 beginning and finished the year 32-50, failing to make the playoffs for the first time in nine seasons.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach John Wetzel, Head Coach John MacLeod, Rod Foster, Walter Davis, Bernard Thompson, Mike Sanders, Jay Humphries, Assistant Coach Al Bianchi, Trainer Joe Proski.

Season Review 86-87

36-46

The Suns opened the season with Larry Nance and Ed Pinckney at forward, Alvan Adams at center and Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. That unit would start 26 of the Suns' 82 games, but 19 other starting combinations would get a shot along the way. Phoenix had five rookies on the club including William Bedford, the team's first-round pick (sixth overall), diamond-in-the-rough Jeff Hornacek, Rafael Addison, Grant Gondrezick and Kenny Gattison. The Suns' 12-12 record in mid-December would be the last time they would be at .500.

On February 26, after consecutive losses to the L.A. Lakers and their record at 22-34, the Suns released their head coach of 13-plus seasons, John MacLeod, replacing him with interim Head Coach Dick Van Arsdale.

Under Van Arsdale, the Suns halted their skid, going 14-12 over the season's final 26 games. During the final two weeks, the Suns won nine of their last 10 games and 12 of their last 15. They won nine straight at home to end the season. Davis led the team in scoring with a 23.6 average while Nance chipped in 22.5 points per game. Davis also made his sixth appearance in the All-Star Game.

Season Review 87-88

RECORD
28-54

When the Phoenix Suns projected their opening night lineup, rookie Head Coach John Wetzel envisioned a starting unit of Larry Nance and Armon Gilliam at forward, James Edwards at center with Walter Davis and Jay Humphries at guard. During the season's final month, the Suns' starting unit had evolved into Eddie Johnson at small forward, Gilliam at power forward, Mark West at center, Kevin Johnson and Jeff Hornacek at guard.

The Suns finished the season with a 28-54 record, their poorest record since their 16-66 expansion season in 1968-69. However, in Suns history, 1987-88 will likely be referred to as "The Year of the Trade." In late February, Suns Director of Player Personnel, Cotton Fitzsimmons, orchestrated a series of trades that changed the face and the fortunes of the Suns. In the largest single transaction to that point in the 20-year history of the Suns franchise, Fitzsimmons dealt Nance and Mike Sanders, along with Detroit's first-round pick in 1988 to Cleveland in exchange for the Cavs first- and second-round draft picks in 1988, and players KJ, West and Tyrone Corbin. The Suns finished off the trading flurry by sending Humphries to Milwaukee for Craig Hodges.

The new-look Suns put together a respectable 11-9 record over the last quarter of the season and KJ won Rookie of the Month honors for April. Shortly after the end of the season, Wetzel was released and was replaced by Fitzsimmons, who was making his second appearance as the Suns' head coach.

Season Review 88-89

55-27

When the season began, no one predicted that the Suns would end up with the fourth-best record in the NBA and give the defending World Champion Los Angeles Lakers a serious run for the Pacific Division title. However, the Suns did just that on their way to the third-biggest turnaround in NBA history, improving by 27 games.

The 1988-89 Suns did not resemble any past Suns squads as Jeff Hornacek was the lone holdover from two years before. Director of Player Personnel Cotton Fitzsimmons took over as head coach prior to the season and brought assistant coaches Paul Westphal, Lionel Hollins and Truck Robinson on board.

The Suns won 55 games, including 18 of their last 22 games. They were the only team in the league to have three players average 20-plus points (Tom Chambers 25.7, Eddie Johnson 21.5, Kevin Johnson 20.4) and led the league with 118.6 points per game.

The Suns set a new Coliseum attendance record with an average of 12,465 fans at home and 18 sellouts, also a franchise record.

The Suns defeated Denver in the first round of the playoffs and won their second round series against Golden State 4-1. Next up were the Lakers in the Western Conference Finals. They played the Lakers tough but fell 4-0.

The Suns were showered with postseason awards. Eddie Johnson won the NBA Sixth Man Award, Kevin Johnson was named the Most Improved Player, Fitzsimmons won NBA Coach of the Year and President and CEO Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for the third time. It was the first time in NBA history that a single team won four postseason league awards. Chambers and KJ were also selected to the All-NBA Second Team.

Season Review 89-90

RECORD
54-28

The 1989-90 Suns featured eight returning players from the previous year's team and finished 54-28.

Phoenix ended the season second in the NBA in points scored (114.9) and 22 road wins established a new team record. The Suns also established a new NBA record on April 9 when they hit 61 free throws against Utah. The club won a single season team-record 19 in a row at home.

Tom Chambers set the club record for total points in a season (2,201) and scoring average (27.2) and placed fourth in the league in scoring average.

Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons reached the .500 mark for his career with a win over Philadelphia on February 24. It was the first time he was at the .500 level since March 7, 1976, when he was head coach of Atlanta. Fitzsimmons, the 1989 NBA Coach of the Year, was named Coach of the Month for February.

The Suns set an all-time regular season home attendance record on April 3 against Dallas, and played in front of 578,661 fans on the year. The Suns had 26 sellouts to set a new franchise record, topping the old mark of 18 set in 1988-89.

Phoenix began playoff competition with a hard-fought 3-2 series win over Utah. They then defeated the L.A. Lakers, 4-1, in the Western Conference Semifinals; the first time a Suns team defeated the Lakers in a seven-game playoff series. The Suns then lost to Portland, 4-2, in the conference finals. Chambers and Kevin Johnson were both named to the All-NBA Second Team.

Season Review 90-91

55-27

Following two consecutive trips to the Western Conference Finals and two-straight 50-plus win seasons, expectations of the Suns were high. They did not disappoint as the club finished 55-27.

The Suns took off for Tokyo, Japan, to open the season with two games against Utah. It marked the first time that professional sports teams from the United States played regular season games outside of North America. The Suns and Jazz split the two games.

The Suns set several records versus Denver on November 10. In that game, Head Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons won his 700th career game, becoming only the seventh coach in NBA history to achieve that mark. As a team, the Suns set a new NBA record for points in a half, scoring 107 first-half points, and tied the record for points in a non-overtime game with 173.

On November 27 in Portland, the Suns defeated the Trail Blazers 123-109, ending a 20-game losing streak in Portland.

Phoenix set another club record with its 13-3 mark in March, the most wins by a Suns team in any month.

Phoenix finished the year with a 32-9 record at home and a 23-18 mark on the road. The 23 road wins eclipsed the record of 22 set during the 1989-90 season. However, the Suns lost in the opening round of the playoffs, 3-1, to Utah.

Season Review 91-92

53-29

The Suns' 53-29 record marked the fourth-straight year with 50 or more wins. The Suns opened the season with a grueling November in which they went 8-9, but rebounded to go 11-1 in December, 10-6 in January, 16-6 in an injury-plagued February, 12-3 in March and 5-4 in April.

The season included the franchise's 1,000th career win as the Suns became just the 12th franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,000-win plateau and only Milwaukee, Boston, Philadelphia and the Lakers did so in less time. Phoenix's 36-5 home record tied the team's previous best set during the 1978-90 and 1980-81 seasons.

Five Suns players – Jeff Hornacek, Kevin Johnson, Dan Majerle, Tom Chambers and Tim Perry – averaged double figure scoring as Phoenix averaged 112.1 points, second in the league.

The Suns completed their 24th and final season at Veterans Memorial Coliseum by setting a new regular season attendance record with sellouts in each of the 41 home games.

The Suns defeated San Antonio, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs and lost to Portland, 4-1, in the second round. The last NBA game played at Veterans Memorial Coliseum was a 153-151 overtime loss May 11 in Game 4 against Portland. KJ scored 35 points for the Suns while Clyde Drexler pumped in 33 for the Blazers.

Season Review 92-93

62-20

The Suns had high expectations going into their 25th Anniversary season in the new America West Arena. Bolstered by a June 17, 1992, trade for Charles Barkley which sent Jeff Hornacek, Andrew Lang and Tim Perry to Philadelphia, Phoenix led the NBA with a franchise-record 62 wins. Phoenix also acquired veteran guard Danny Ainge and elevated Paul Westphal to head coach.

Westphal became the winningest rookie coach in NBA history and Barkley went on to become the first Phoenix player to be named NBA MVP.

The Suns began the season without Kevin Johnson, who missed 31 games due to injury. However, the Suns had a perfect December as Phoenix tied the NBA's third-best mark for a month with a 14-0 record.

At the All-Star Game, Phoenix was represented by the West's leading vote-getter Barkley and reserve Dan Majerle, as well as Westphal and his staff who led the West to victory.

Barkley averaged 25.6 points and 12.2 rebounds and led the Suns to their second Pacific Division title. The club led the NBA in scoring (113.4), broke the NBA record for three-pointers made (398) and set a franchise home attendance record (779,943). Jerry Colangelo was named NBA Executive of the Year for an unprecedented fourth time.

Down 0-2 against the L.A. Lakers in the first round of the playoffs, the Suns became the first team in history to come back and win 3-2. The Suns downed Seattle in seven games to earn a trip to the NBA Finals against Chicago. Phoenix lost the first two games at home, but won two of the next three in Chicago, including Game 3, a triple-overtime affair that saw Majerle tie an NBA Finals record with six three-pointers and KJ set an NBA Finals record with 62 total minutes played. But the Suns came up short as John Paxson buried a three-pointer with 3.9 seconds remaining in Game 6 in Phoenix to give the Bulls a 4-2 series win and their third-straight NBA Championship.

Season Review 93-94

56-26

The Suns added veterans A.C. Green and Joe Kleine to their Western Conference Championship team, but battled injuries throughout the season. Despite losing 211 player games to injury/illness the Suns posted a 56-26 record, the fifth best overall mark in the NBA. The Suns posted an impressive 13-2 record in December, but the team's fortunes took a drastic turn for the worse in January. After playing the first two months of the season virtually injury-free, the Suns top two players, Kevin Johnson and Charles Barkley, went down with injuries. Johnson missed 15 games from January 5 to February 6 with a sprained right ankle and a bout with chicken pox. Barkley suffered a torn quadriceps tendon in his right knee, January 7, at Minnesota and missed the next 17 contests. The team struggled to a 7-8 mark, their first losing month since November 1991.

Cedric Ceballos, who returned to the lineup after missing the first 29 games, led the team during January and had two 40-point nights in a three-game stretch. Green averaged 19.3 points and led the team with 11.4 rebounds. Phoenix bounced back to capture an 8-4 mark in February. KJ, Barkley and Danny Ainge all returned to the lineup. KJ played in his third All-Star Game while Barkley, the league's leading vote-getter in balloting, was unable to play due to injury.

The Suns' march to the playoffs included a seven-game win streak. KJ had an impressive April, including a Suns record 25 assists in a win over San Antonio on April 6. The Suns beat Golden State 3-0 in the first round. In Game 3, Barkley scored 56 points, the third highest total ever in an NBA playoff game. After overcoming a 20-point fourth quarter deficit to take Game 1, the Suns again came from behind to win Game 2 of their second-round matchup against Houston. But, the eventual champion Rockets were too tough, and battled back to take the series 4-3.

Season Review 94-95

59-23

A flurry of offseason activity brought free agents Danny Manning and Wayman Tisdale to a talent-laden roster as six current or former All-Stars suited up. While the team appeared ready to take their final step toward an NBA title, injuries plagued the club early and often. Charles Barkley strained an abdominal muscle during preseason and missed the first 11 games. Kevin Johnson sat out 35 games during the year with leg injuries. Most damaging was the season-ending knee injury Manning suffered February 6, after averaging 17.9 points and 6.0 rebounds in 46 games.

Rookie Wesley Person, Elliot Perry and Dan Majerle enabled the Suns to withstand the injury firestorm and hold the NBA's top mark (38-10) at the break. Person earned a place on the NBA's All-Rookie Second Team. Perry finished second in voting for the NBA's Most Improved Player award, while Majerle became the first reserve to be voted to start on an All-Star team.

Majerle, Barkley and the rest of the West team were coached to a win by Suns Head Coach Paul Westphal at the 45th annual All-Star Game at America West Arena.

The Suns won eight of their last nine games to capture their third Pacific Division title and earn the second seed in the playoffs.

The Suns swept Portland, 3-0, setting up a rematch with Houston. Gaining momentum in the second round, the Suns took a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven-game series. But the defending champions refused to give up and battled back to win three-straight, including an overtime victory in Game 5 and a one-point win in Game 7, on their way to a second-straight NBA championship.

Season Review 95-96

41-41

Several outstanding individual performances and historical milestones highlighted the season, most notably Charles Barkley becoming the 10th player in NBA history to reach the 20,000 point-10,000 rebound level (Feb. 19 vs. Vancouver).

The Suns failed to win 50 or more games for the first time since 1987-88 and endured 26 lineup changes and 296 games missed due to injury/illness.

At the start of training camp, the Suns acquired John "Hot Rod" Williams from Cleveland for Dan Majerle, Antonio Lang and a conditional first-round draft pick. On January 16, Cotton Fitzsimmons replaced Paul Westphal as head coach and guided the team to a 27-22 record in his third stint at the Suns helm.

Danny Manning missed the first 42 games recovering from a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee, but played in 33 of the remaining 40 and averaged 13.4 points and 4.3 rebounds. Barkley averaged 23.2 points and 11.6 rebounds, his best averages since earning the league MVP award in 1993. He was also Player of the Month for February. Kevin Johnson, the NBA's Player of the Week (April 7), overcame early-season injuries that forced him to miss 26 games and averaged 18.7 points and 9.2 assists.

Michael Finley, who was named to the NBA All-Rookie First Team, became the first Suns rookie since Walter Davis to score 1,000 points. A.C. Green completed his ninth-straight season without missing a game and pushed his consecutive games played streak to 813, third in NBA history.

The Suns were the No. 7 seed in the West and were without Finley, who suffered a sprained left ankle in the final quarter of the season finale at Houston. For the first time since 1991, the Suns lost in the first round, as San Antonio scored a 3-1 series win.

Season Review 96-97

40-42

In a season of growth and transition, Phoenix overcame a club-worst 0-13 start and qualified for the postseason. The Suns became the first team in NBA history to make the playoffs after losing its first 13 games.

The reshaping of the team began with the offseason trade of Charles Barkley to Houston in exchange for veterans Chucky Brown, Mark Bryant, Robert Horry and Sam Cassell and the signing of free agent Rex Chapman and rookie Steve Nash. Then on December 26, 1996, the Suns acquired All-Star guard Jason Kidd from Dallas, along with Tony Dumas and Loren Meyer, for fan favorites Michael Finley, A.C. Green and Cassell. Less than a month after the Kidd trade, former Sun Cedric Ceballos was re-acquired in a deal that sent Horry and Joe Kleine to the Lakers.

Bolstered by the improved lineup and new Head Coach Danny Ainge, who took the reins from Cotton Fitzsimmons on November 15, 1996, the new-look Suns compiled a 19-6 mark over the final two months of the season and qualified for the playoffs. The "small ball" group of Kevin Johnson, Kidd, Chapman and Wesley Person carried the bulk of the scoring load down the stretch. Phoenix averaged a league-best 109.9 points in that time. The club's torrid second half included an 11-game winning streak from March 20 to April 10 that enabled Phoenix to become the first team in league history to own a double-digit losing streak and a double-digit winning steak in the same season.

While the Suns fell 3-2 to Seattle in the first round of the 1997 postseason, the series was memorable. Chapman's running, one-handed three-pointer with 1.7 seconds remaining in Game 4 sent the game into overtime. Chapman connected on an NBA-record nine three-pointers and had a playoff career-high 42 points in the Suns' Game 1 win at Seattle.

KJ became just the sixth player in league history to record 11,500 points, 6,000 assists, 2,000 rebounds and 1,000 steals for his career.

Season Review 97-98

56-26

The 1997-98 season was poised as a rebuilding season, but far exceeded expectations. The club convinced Kevin Johnson to put off his retirement and play his 11th NBA season, signed free agents Clifford Robinson and George McCloud and acquired Antonio McDyess from Denver for Wesley Person, Tony Dumas and four draft picks in a three-team trade.

The Suns' 17-9 record at the end of December was their best start since the 1994-95 season when they ended the season with the second-best record in the league. Phoenix was also on pace to match the 1992-93 Suns that advanced to the NBA Finals with their 48-25 overall record through March. However, an injury to Danny Manning (torn ACL on April 7) changed the complexion of the team for the rest of the season and into the playoffs, but the Suns were able to finish strong.

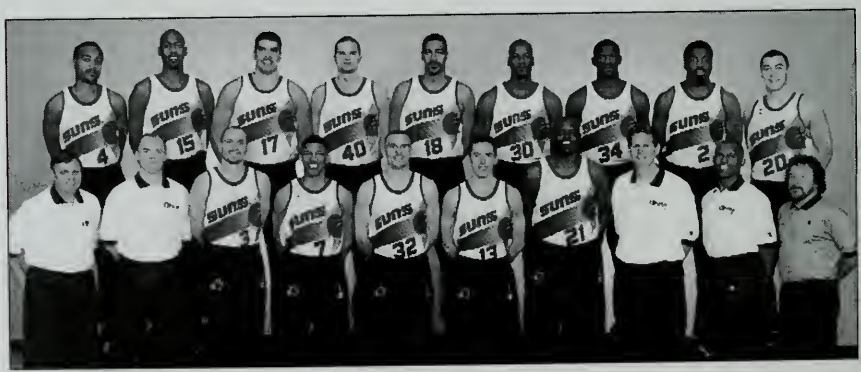
The club put together a 10-game winning streak, including wins over Seattle, Portland, L.A. Lakers and Houston, from March 25 to April 17 and the Suns were a perfect 6-0 on the road in April.

Phoenix recorded 10 of the 15 top defensive performances in team history. Suns opponents were limited to 80 points or less 14 times, and the Suns were 45-9 when holding their opponents to below 100 points.

Manning earned the NBA's Sixth Man Award, becoming only the second player in franchise history, and the first in nine years, to be so honored. Jason Kidd was named to the West All-Star team, his second appearance, and the Suns' first since 1996.

The Suns faced San Antonio in the first round of playoffs with a homecourt advantage. The Spurs won the first game but the Suns came back and won the second game to even the series. San Antonio won both games at the Alamodome by an average of 15.5 points to win the series, 3-1.

Johnson moved past Nate "Tiny" Archibald into 10th place on the all-time NBA career assist list, and on March 29 he scored his 13,000th career point.



FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach Roger Reid, Assistant Coach Scott Skiles, Rex Chapman, Kevin Johnson, Jason Kidd, Steve Nash, George McCloud, Head Coach Danny Ainge, Assistant Coach Frank Johnson, Trainer Joe Proski. BACK ROW: Dennis Scott, Danny Manning, Horacio Llamas, Loren Meyer, John "Hot Rod" Williams, Clifford Robinson, Antonio McDyess, Mark Bryant, Marko Milic.

Season Review 98-99

27-23

A season that began late and was shortened due to labor strife finished with the Suns earning an 11th-straight berth in the NBA Playoffs. The NBA suffered through a lockout from June 30 through January 21, and as a result the season was reduced to 50 regular season games. After the lockout, the club added All-Star Tom Gugliotta and three-time NBA titlist Luc Longley while re-signing free agents Rex Chapman, Clifford Robinson and George McCloud.

The top individual performance was turned in by Jason Kidd, who gained All-NBA First Team and All-Defensive First Team honors at season's end. He became the first Suns player to lead the league in assists (10.8 apg) and also topped all NBA guards with 6.8 rebounds. Kidd posted seven triple-doubles, with the rest of the NBA combining for 11.

For the second-straight season, the Suns led the league in assists with 25.0 per game, backed by Kidd's league-best average. Phoenix also placed second with a .372 three-point field goal percentage, as Robinson finished eighth with a career-best .417 and McCloud was ninth at .416.

A playoff berth was in jeopardy as Phoenix owned a 15-18 mark in early April. However, the Suns won their final eight home games and finished the season with a 12-5 mark to tie for third in the Pacific Division. The eight-straight home wins were the most since 1994-95 when the team won its first 13 home games of the season.

Phoenix faced Pacific Division champion Portland in the opening round of the playoffs and dropped the series, 3-0, as all three games were decided late in the fourth quarter.

Head Coach Danny Ainge became the second fastest Suns coach to reach 100 wins, as the team won at Denver on February 15 to give Ainge his 100th win in 162 games.

Season Review 99-00

RECORD
53-29

In a season that was anything but scripted, the Suns recorded 50 or more wins for the ninth time in 12 seasons and advanced to the Western Conference Semifinals for the first time since 1995.

Phoenix opened the playoffs with a 3-1 series win over defending champion San Antonio before falling to the eventual champion Lakers 4-1 in the second-round.

Defensively the Suns had their top season ever, limiting opponents to 93.7 points and .424 shooting from the field. Jason Kidd and Clifford Robinson were each named NBA All-Defensive Second Team and Kidd finished tied for fifth in the NBA with 2.0 steals.

Kidd was named All-NBA First Team for the second-straight season and led all Western Conference guards in All-Star voting. Rodney Rogers won the NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award with the second-highest percentage of the vote in history (86.0%) and Shawn Marion earned NBA All-Rookie Second Team honors.

The season was one of challenges as the Suns lost a total of 269 games due to injury, with Anfernee Hardaway (right foot, 21 games) and Marion (left knee, 31 games) missing most of two months. On December 13 with the club 13-7, Head Coach Danny Ainge unexpectedly stepped down and lead assistant Scott Skiles was promoted to the top spot. Days later without three starters, the Suns pulled out a 110-102 win at Portland behind Tom Gugliotta's 17 points and 14 rebounds. Within an hour of the win, he suffered a seizure on the team bus and missed seven games. Back to form and playing perhaps his best ball of the season, he went down on March 10 with a season-ending left knee injury.

Robinson moved into the starting lineup in December due to the injuries and supplied the missing offense. He finished the season with a team-best 18.5 points that included an America West Arena record and career-high 50 points on January 16 in a 113-100 win.

With the return of Hardaway and Marion the club started to gel, going 10-3 in February and 12-4 in March (13-1 at home during that time). Too good to be true, Kidd went down March 22 with a fractured left ankle that left him sidelined until Game 4 of the opening round of the playoffs. Suns great Kevin Johnson came out of retirement on March 25 to replace Kidd on the active roster.

Season Review 00-01

51-31

Competing in the toughest conference in NBA history, the Suns owned the eighth-best record in the NBA and finished with 50-plus wins for the 10th time in 13 seasons as seven Western Conference teams had 50 or more victories.

Phoenix posted its top defensive season in club history by allowing 91.8 points per game, fewest in the team's existence, and held opponents to .435 shooting from the field, second-best in club history.

Phoenix was the only NBA team to have five people average double figures in scoring with Shawn Marion topping the team with 17.3, Jason Kidd at 16.9, Clifford Robinson averaging 16.4 points, newcomer Tony Delk adding 12.3 points and Rodney Rogers at 12.2 points. Marion also emerged as a factor on the glass in his second season as he finished eighth in the NBA with 10.8 rebounds to become the first Sun since 1995-96 and sixth player in team history to average 10-plus rebounds for a season.

For the second-straight season the Suns had a player score 50 points as Delk reached the mark at Sacramento, his former team, with an ARCO Arena record 53 points on January 2 in an overtime loss to the Kings.

Kidd joined Oscar Robertson, Bob Cousy and John Stockton as the only players in NBA history to win the assist title three-straight seasons with a league-high 9.8 assists. Kidd was also named All-NBA First Team for the third consecutive season and NBA All-Defensive First Team.

The Suns finished the season with an NBA-best 13-4 mark after March 19, a stretch that included a nine-game home winning streak to close out the year. Phoenix placed third in the Pacific Division and sixth in the Western Conference.

That led to a first-round playoff matchup against Sacramento and the Suns opened the series with a win at Sacramento but then lost three in a row to fall to the Kings.

Season Review 01-02

36-46

It was a season of transition for the Suns as 20 different players dotted the roster during the season. Three in-season trades, two summer trades and a coaching change were factors in the season of flux and Phoenix missed the playoffs for the first time since 1987-88.

Prior to the season the Suns acquired Stephon Marbury from New Jersey in exchange for Jason Kidd and John Wallace and Jud Buechler from Detroit for Clifford Robinson. During the season the Suns added Jake Voskuhl, Bo Outlaw, Joe Johnson, Milt Palacio and Randy Brown through trades. On February 17 the club had a change of leadership when Frank Johnson took over for Scott Skiles.

But the flurry of activity did not stop the Suns from winning the 1,500th game in club history with a 92-83 win over San Antonio on February 24. In the process the Suns became the fourth-fastest franchise in NBA history to reach the 1,500-win mark.

In his first season with the Suns, Marbury averaged a team-best 20.4 points, the first time a Phoenix player averaged 20-plus points since 1996-97 when Kevin Johnson had 20.1 points. Shawn Marion added 19.1 points to give the Suns their first 19-plus point tandem since 1993-94 when Charles Barkley (21.6) and KJ (20.0) turned the trick. Marbury was also sixth in the NBA with 8.1 assists and Marion was one of two NBA players to be ranked in the top 40 in seven of the league's nine major statistical categories, including eighth with 9.9 rebounds.

The season marked the last in the 14-year NBA career of Dan Majerle and the Phoenix fan favorite finished his career with a made three-pointer to give him 800 for his Suns tenure and 1,360 (fifth in NBA history) over his career.

After joining the Suns on February 20 from Boston in a trade for Rodney Rogers and Tony Delk, Joe Johnson averaged 9.6 points and 4.1 rebounds in 29 games and earned All-NBA Rookie Second Team honors at season's end.

Season Review 02-03

44-38

Only one year removed from missing the postseason, the Suns reemerged as playoff contenders by securing the eighth and final seed in the competitive Western Conference. Sparking the eight-game improvement were 2003 All-Stars Stephon Marbury and Shawn Marion, the veteran leadership of Anfernee Hardaway and 2002-03 "got milk?" NBA Rookie of the Year Amaré Stoudemire.

The Suns weren't just content with being back on their postseason course, though. The young squad put a scare into the NBA's top team and eventual NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs by stealing two victories in their first-round series on a couple of improbable game-winning shots by Marbury (Game 1) and Jake Voskuhl (Game 4).

The Suns' turnaround began at the 2002 NBA Draft when Phoenix selected high school phenom Stoudemire and Casey Jacobsen in the first round. Stoudemire eventually became the league's youngest ROY winner in the award's history and just the third Suns player to win the honor, following with Walter Davis in 1977-78 and Alvan Adams in 1975-76.

Phoenix also got two All-Star performances from its top two players, Marbury and Marion, who became the Suns' first All-Star duo since 1995 (Charles Barkley and Dan Majerle). Marbury was the only player in the NBA to be in the top 12 in points (22.3, 12th) and assists (8.1, 4th), and capped his season with his second selection to the All-NBA Third Team. Marion finished the season as the only player ranked in top 20 in points (21.2, 17th) and top 10 in rebounds (9.5, 8th) and steals (2.28, 3rd).

Phoenix was a season-best 10 games above .500 on Jan. 12 (24-14) until injuries to three of the team's five opening night starters (Hardaway, Jake Tsakalidis, Tom Gugliotta) sent the team into a midseason slump. Led by Frank Johnson, in his first full season as head coach, the Suns won eight of their last 12 games to clinch a playoff spot in the final week of the regular season.

The campaign was only the second in the franchise's 35 years and the first since 1970-71 that the Suns did not make a player addition/subtraction or coaching change during the season.

FRONT ROW: Assistant Coach Phil Weber, Assistant Coach Mike D'Antoni, Head Coach Frank Johnson, Stephon Marbury, Joe Johnson, Anfernee Hardaway, Shawn Marion, Casey Jacobsen, Randy Brown, Assistant Coach Marc Iavaroni, Assistant Coach Tim Grgurich, Equipment Manager Rich Howell, Assistant Video Coordinator Ron DuBois. BACK ROW: Head Trainer Aaron Nelson, Assistant Trainer Casey Smith, Alton Ford, Bo Outlaw, Jake Voskuhl, Jake Tsakalidis, Scott Williams, Dan Langhi, Tom Gugliotta, Amaré Stoudemire, Video Coordinator Garrick Barr, Strength Coach Robin Pound.

Season Review 03-04

29-53

From the roster to the coaching staff to the arena they play in, 2003-04 became a season of change and adjustment for the Phoenix Suns.

The season began with high hopes, but after struggling through the first six weeks, the Suns opted for a coaching change. Mike D'Antoni was named the club's 12th head coach in team history on Dec. 10, replacing Frank Johnson. Less than one month later on Jan. 5, Phoenix pulled off a major deal that sent Stephon Marbury, Anfernee Hardaway and Cezary Trybanski to New York for Antonio McDyess, Howard Eisley, Maciej Lampe, Charlie Ward, the draft rights to Milos Vujanic, two first-round picks and cash.

Even though the team finished 29-53 and missed the playoffs, the deal offered salary cap flexibility and transformed the club into the youngest team in the NBA, and put the franchise in excellent position to improve via free agency in the offseason.

One player who clearly benefited from the trade was Joe Johnson, who took advantage of increased playing time, and averaged nearly 20 points, five rebounds and five assists in the final 48 games. After a slow start, Amaré Stoudemire led the Suns in scoring with 20.0 points, but played in only 55 games due to a left ankle, big toe injury.

Suns Chairman and CEO Jerry Colangelo was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. on April 5, joining former Suns player Connie Hawkins as a recipient of the sport's highest honor. Shortly after the season ended, Arizona native Robert Sarver led an investment group that purchased the club for an NBA record $401 million on June 30. Colangelo will remain as Chairman and CEO until the sale of the team is complete in June 2007, and then will retain the title of chairman for at least another five years beyond that.

SUNS ALL-TIME PLAYOFF RECORD — 97-110 (.469)

1969-70 (Suns 39-43 Regular Season)

The playoff format in 1970 rewarded the top four teams from both the Western and Eastern Conferences. The first series, known as the semifinals, was a best-of-seven format as were the two following rounds: the conference finals and the NBA Finals.

1975-76 (Suns 42-40 Regular Season)

Beginning with the 1974-75 season, the league was divided into the four divisions and two conferences we know today. Five teams from each conference advanced to the playoffs. The winningest three teams received a bye in the first-round, the remaining two teams played in a best-of-five first-round series. The best-of-seven semifinals pitted the first-place team against the winner of the first-round series and the second and third-place teams against each other, with the winners advancing to the conference finals and the NBA Finals.

This procedure changed slightly prior to the start of the 1976-77 season when additional teams were added to the league. At that time, six teams advanced to the playoffs and each of the division winners received a bye to the semifinals. Again, the first-round of the playoffs was a best-of-five series and each of the three following series were best-of-seven.

NBA Division Realignment

New divisions are in order as 30 NBA teams tip off the 2004-05 season. Each conference will have 15 teams with three divisions of five teams.

Under the new plan, teams will play divisional opponents four times each (two home games/two road games), conference opponents outside the division three or four times each and opponents outside the conference two times each (one home game/one road game).

The three regular season divisional winners in each conference will earn a playoff berth and one of the conference's top three playoff seeds based on regular season record. The remaining five playoff berths for each conference will be based on regular season records with no regard to divisional alignment.

Home-court advantage throughout the NBA playoffs will be based solely on regular season record, not playoff seeding, thus a divisional winner that has a higher playoff seed than an opponent will not necessarily have home-court advantage in the playoff series.

Community Outreach

"The community owes us nothing. It's up to us to go out and earn their respect."

Jerry Colangelo, 1968

Read to Achieve

The cornerstone of the Suns' educational emphasis is Read to Achieve, the NBA's year-round national program designed to help young people develop a life-long love for reading and to encourage adults to read regularly to children. Suns players and The Gorilla support the program by reading to groups of students each month during the season. With community partner Home Depot, the Suns also build Reading & Learning Centers and Reading Corners at local Boys & Girls Clubs, YMCAs and other non-profit youth organizations.

Suns/Diamondbacks Education Academy

The Suns are proud to be part of a unique solution addressing a serious high school dropout problem. In partnership with Communities in Schools Arizona, the Suns/Diamondbacks Education Academy provides educational opportunities to high-risk students ages 16-21 who have out-aged high school. The academy does so by addressing their needs through individualized programs that are motivational and are offered at times that meet their schedules.

Quest for Quality

Through the Quest for Quality program, sponsored by APS, Arizona schools apply for an allotment of tickets to be used as student rewards for exemplary behavior and achievement. One student from each school is selected to have his/her picture taken with a Suns player on the court at halftime, and every student receives a certificate of achievement.

Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury Youth Basketball Leagues

Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury Youth Basketball Leagues provide kids the opportunity to learn what it takes to win... both on and off the court. Sponsored by The Arizona Republic and Arizona Department of Health Services, Jr. Suns/Jr. Mercury provides boys and girls ages 4-16 a chance to learn the important lessons of life - the value of a good education, good sportsmanship and giving back to the community, right along with developing their basketball skills. Leagues run throughout the year for kids of all skill levels and feature free clinics by Suns and Mercury players, coaches and alumni and the chance to scrimmage in front of the home crowd at America West Arena.

Suns Nite Hoops

Suns Nite Hoops is an educational, job placement and recreational program for troubled young adults. This free organized basketball league offers men ages 18-25 a positive alternative to drugs, gangs and violence. Though the hoops are the big draw, participants are required to attend a 45-minute educational workshop on location, just prior to each game night. There they meet with professional facilitators to discuss important issues such as improving their education and learning personal development skills. Suns Nite Hoops also provides two case managers who work one-on-one with each participant as they work toward specific, personal goals.

Banner Wheelchair Suns Basketball

Sponsored by Banner Health System, Southwest Airlines, the Arizona Spinal Cord Injury Association, the Paralyzed Veterans Association and the Suns, the Banner Wheelchair Suns compete in the National Wheelchair Basketball Association. Our nationally-ranked team wins on the court, but they are making a big difference off the court, too. Players manage several community service programs including, "It's OK To Be Different," a look at what we all share in common and what makes us unique. For high schoolers, the team presents a safe driving campaign that includes public service announcements, posters and school assemblies, which feature a personal story from a team member who tells how he was injured in a car accident and what could be done to prevent such accidents.

Suns Alumni Summer Youth Basketball Camps

Each summer the Phoenix Suns host more than 1,500 Valley youth on the America West Arena practice court to participate in the Suns Alumni Summer Youth Basketball Camps. Suns legends Connie Hawkins, Mark West, John Shumate, Alvan Adams and Tim Kempton manage camps at the Suns practice court. With assistance from the City of Phoenix Housing Department, the Suns invite kids ages 6-15 living in local housing projects to attend the daily activities.

Community Appearances

Meeting a Phoenix Suns player can be a significant experience in the life of a child ... or any fan! Suns players, coaches and alumni make appearances year-round, allowing the Suns to support hundreds of community organizations in a unique way. Appearances at schools, hospitals, parks, stores, basketball camps and community events help many other organizations raise funds and build community awareness for their cause.

And the ever-entertaining Gorilla, the best mascot in the NBA, makes friends throughout the state on more than 200 community appearances annually. Many times, he is joined by the Phoenix Suns Entertainment Team, which includes Suns dancers, tumblers, Zoo Crew and the Suns' Hummer.

Donations

The Phoenix Suns support hundreds of non-profit and educational organizations each year with donations of cash, tickets, merchandise and autographed items. Thanks to Phoenix Suns players who purchase blocks of tickets to each game, many kids have the chance to see a Suns game live for the very first time. And through Suns Charity Seats, season ticket holders may donate unused seats, which are then donated to non-profit organizations that assist the needs of children. Last season, the Phoenix Suns also joined the Governor's Hometown Heroes program by donating more than 5,000 tickets to military families during the war in Iraq.

Through the Suns court renovation program, old basketball courts receive a new surface, custom paint job and new hoops. A dedication ceremony features player and alumni clinics for kids who will use the court. In the past five years, the Suns have renovated more than 40 courts statewide.

Volunteer efforts

As a community leader, the Phoenix Suns franchise takes the position of role model very seriously. That's why we are a major contributor to the United Way and the United Way Day of Caring. In addition, Phoenix Suns employees serve on numerous community boards and committees, leading a wide variety of charitable efforts throughout the community and state.

Through Good Sports, the Suns' employee volunteerism program, staff members donate time during the off-season to complete projects at schools and non-profit organizations. You'll find Good Sports making repairs to schools, walking shelter animals, reading to children, cleaning park trails or creating art projects with homeless kids.

Phoenix Suns Charities

Phoenix Suns Charities is the team's foundation that uses the unique resources of the Phoenix Suns to assist the needs of children and families in Arizona. Since its inception in 1989, the foundation has raised approximately five million dollars through special events, scoreboard message donations, sponsor programs, player donations and contributions from the Suns' generous fans.

Suns Charities funds are used to make grants to over 80 non-profit organizations that serve children and youth in the areas of education, health and human services, the arts, sports and recreation and rehabilitation. Last year's grants totaled almost half a million dollars! The foundation also sponsors the SunStudent College Scholarship program, which awards $15,000 in scholarships to Arizona high school seniors who have made a significant commitment to community service.

Community investment is important to the Phoenix Suns. In fact, the total value of Suns grants, donations, scholarships, merchandise, tickets and memorabilia reaches approximately $2 million each year. Questions or comments regarding Phoenix Suns community relations programs should be directed to Tom Ambrose, Sr. Vice President of Community Affairs at (602) 379-7900 or tambrose@suns.com.

NBA Community Outreach

The dedication of the NBA, its teams and players to the improvement of communities around the world has a long history and tremendous reach.

The league's implementation and execution of its Read to Achieve program impacts and inspires children and their families to develop a life-long love of reading. The entire NBA family has placed reading and children's education at the forefront of its community work by donating millions of dollars, extensive resources and countless volunteer hours to the promotion and sponsorship of literacy initiatives. In addition, through the internationally acclaimed Basketball without Borders program, the NBA reaches people all over the world.

Through the Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA programs, the NBA positively impacts millions of kids and their parents on a year-round basis through stressing fundamental basketball skill development, teamwork, sportsmanship and positive adult participation. The Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA aims to develop a life-long passion for the game of basketball by providing a support structure that encourages participation and makes youth basketball fun and rewarding for players, coaches, officials and parents.

As the world's greatest athletes, NBA players are dedicated to the community and committed to giving back in extraordinary ways. Through their foundations, camp efforts and charitable work, they make a difference for thousands of non-profit and youth serving organizations. Each month, the NBA honors one of its players who has achieved outstanding accomplishments in the community, with the Community Assist Award and the David Robinson plaque, which represents the standard and legacy set by the NBA Legend. Additionally, the NBA and WNBA each present an annual Sportsmanship Award to a player who best represents the ideals of sportsmanship.
